

I believe removing the do not call list is in violation of our right to privacy.